The Port Authority backs cruise lines' appeal to resume sailings

24 July 2020

The Western Ligurian Sea Port Authority fully supports the cruise industry's request to resume sailings from the Italian ports, following a stop to worldwide operations in the midst of the global public health Covid-19 emergency

Download the Press Release >