

The Ports of Genoa rail freight line reopens

04 October 2018

Two of the three railway lines which had to be shut down, following the collapse of the Morandi Bridge on 14 August, reopened.

The first freight train to resume service arrived at 10:30 hrs from Dinazzano (Reggio Emilia) to the Messina Intermodal Marine Terminal in the basin of Sampierdarena